SCREENING & DISCUSSION OF POV: Pier Kids

AT THE OCTOBER MEETING OF NAPLES PRIDE'S QUEER CULTURE CLUB

What does life look like for LGBTQ+ youth fifty years after Stonewall? Pier Kids, directed by Elegance Bratton and produced by Chester Algenal Gordon, transports audiences to New York City's historic Christopher Street Pier where homeless queer Black youth navigate the streets to find safety and stability. The film shines a light on an underground community of Pier Kids, showcasing the intricate ways queer people of color utilize public space to build chosen family. This hopeful portrait exposes a side of New York City many often choose to ignore.

Join WGCU's Cary Barbor and Victor Orozco from Naples Pride as your hosts.
